

Dissemination

The CEF Professional project has made several efforts to communicate language teachers and ESP researchers about the CEF Professional tool and its application. The main dissemination channel has been the CEF Professional website www.cefpro.org. More of the dissemination will take place after the end of the project.

Target groups:
Newly recruited/recruitable teachers	- pilot seminars (Karlsruhe, Jyväskylä), teachers traineeship practice (Helsinki)
ESP, VOLL teachers	- articles published in several countries; seminar presentations as listed below
Companies and workplaces	- interviews in companies of relevant fields
Researchers and practitioners	- an extended handbook of the website handbook is in the publication process and will be published after the end of the project
